Predict the winners – get a free Summer Ball Entertainments Ticket!

This year's elections are hotly contested with no one sure who will emerge victorious in any of the positions. Live! Has decided to take bets on the final results with the winner getting an ICU Summer Ball Entertainments Ticket!

On the other page is a sheet of photographs, one for each candidate (don't forget RON!). Take the sheet along to hustings and keep it with you for campaigning week, in case you get collared by someone offering leaflets/sweets/baked beans/doughnuts: it should make it easier to identify them.

On the 13th March, when voting opens, decide how you think each candidate will do and rank them in order, with "1" being the winner. Write your ranking in the boxes under each photo so you remember.

To enter the competition, email a list of candidates for each position in the order you have ranked them to live@cgcu.net. Entries will be accepted while voting is open at the times advertised at the bottom of this sheet.

Results

The person who predicts the election results most accurately will win a Summer Ball Entertainments Ticket.

We will start with the 1st placed candidates and select everyone who predicted them correctly. We then move on to the 2nd placed candidates and eliminate anyone who got that wrong. So on until we've reached the loser in the Felix election or there's only one person left.

If more than one person is left at the end, the winner will be randomly selected. The results of the competition will be announced on <http://live.cgcu.net> along with the election results.
